ABOUT US

Our designers are passionate savvy travellers who started their career in the demanding corporate world, in London, Asia and Paris. We are experts in designing exclusive trips, full of authenticity, cultural discoveries, high quality hospitality services and tailored activities. And above all, we stay away from pre-built packages, group tours and international neutral styles.

Among us, we have visited more than 80 countries ourselves, and developed an expertise also inspired by our own personal lifestyles, where high-end, select pleasures occupy our time off-Studio : you can rely on the knowledge of a certified diver, a skiing fan, a big foodie, an Art buff, who also love opera and ballet, roam museums and galleries, and never miss a opportunity for curated shopping or cocktail-hour

EXPERIENCES FOR GOURMETS

We believe, like Anthony Bourdain, that we should never under-estimate the power of food, and that wherever you go you should savour local flavours, that you discover so much both on people and on culture by spending time around the table. We're lucky to have with us in the Latitudes Studio a real foodie who lives for fresh markets, food shops and restaurants. That's why every single trip we design features a mouth-watering section on where to eat !

We have designed birthday week-ends centred around Michelin 3 Star experiences in Italy, or cooking classes in Japan, up to chocolate & pastry tour in Paris. Recently, we loved to organise a wedding anniversary at the Manoir Aux Quat's Saisons in Oxfordshire, as well as a gourmet stop over in Athens on the way back from Santorini.

AUTHENTIC STAYS

We really don't believe in packaged trips, in mass-tourism destinations. We love to hear "wow" and share our secret gems. We feel that being able to experience something unique is one of the ultimate luxuries.

That's why when we create a trip for our clients we will always suggest an option that oozes authenticity, a one-of-a-kind option.

It can be a stay in an architecture marvel in Madrid, an iconic hotel fit for royalties in India, or a minimalist-luxe ski-house in Japan. Our favourite authentic spot for the summer is the beautiful region of Puglia in the South Italy where we know an absolute paradise to anchor yourself and discover the art of slow living.

ACTIVE BREAKS

Our clients love to be able to spend their quality time practicing their favourite hobby, so we make a point at finding them the best playgrounds.

Golfers love that we offer them the possibility to play on Jack Nicklaus designed golf-courses while their family relax at the Four Seasons. Our divers appreciate that they can discover the Tiputa passage full of dolphins in French Polynesia, our yoga addict indulge in bespoke retreat-style luxurious gateways in paradise. Surfers experience the best waves and the good vibes of authentic surf villages off the beaten path.

A road-trip can also be the perfect dream of freedom, along the Pacific Highway in California, or around New-Zealand north island.

Our Designers will adjust with you how active you want to be but will never compromise on your comfort.

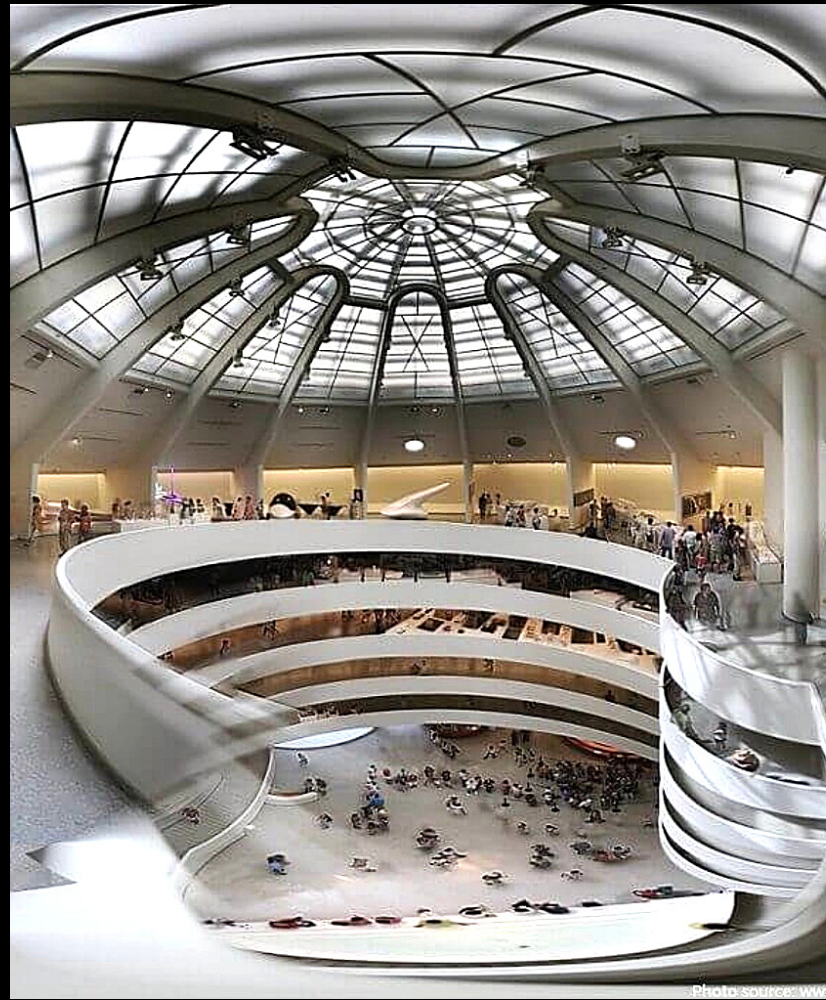

FULL OF DISCOVERIES

Our clients are avid amateurs of beautiful things and the appetite for cultural experiences always plays a big part in the conversation leading to the creation of the perfect travel itinerary.

One of our travel designers has a Master in Art History and loves to curate itineraries that will stimulate our clients' curiosity. He is also an Opera and Ballet amateur, and follow La Scala, Covent Garden, Glyndebourne or Verona and create plans around a night at the opera. We have also designed trips around a large range of interests, such as botanical gardens, urban art or literature. We even chartered a private iconic boat in Egypt so our clients can cruise the Nile and immerse themselves in Ancient Egypt with extra-exclusivity.

Listening to our clients' preferences, we organise private visits, self guided walking itineraries, tickets to exhibitions and shows, shopping itineraries, cooking classes, reading recommendations, movie and books inspired trips, local food or wine experiences.... so our clients can bring back long-lasting rich memories.

ROMANCE & LOVE

Our favourite, most popular request !
Organising surprise romantic week-end,
travel plans as a birthday gift to a loved one who already has everything, a wedding anniversary celebration and honeymoons.

This is really where we put the most of our personal design skills at work, and our hearts too, as we really want those events to be unforgettable for our clients. Because it will be an expression of their feelings for their travelling partner, you want the trip to be ultra-tailored for their very individual lifestyle.

We organised for example a week-end in Milan with designer shopping, ballet and pretty dining spots for a client to surprise his fiancée. 4 days in Portofino for a couple break full of serenity. A wedding anniversary in the Seychelles.
And a divers honeymoon in French Polynesia.

Have you thought about giving the gift of Travel ?

ROMANTIC WEEK-END ON LAKE COMO

THE SERENE LAKE AS PERFECT BACKDROP, A FABULOUS HOTEL TO STAGE A WEEK-END FOR LOVERS OF LIFE

REQUEST : WEEK-END AWAY FOR A CLIENT AND HIS WIFE, MUST BE QUIET, ELEGANT, HAVE NICE RESTAURANTS, AND SOMETHING DIFFERENT

Our clients are a couple in their early forties, both very busy execs who wanted to escape London for the Summer Bank Holiday. Their lifestyle surrounds them with beautiful furnitures, elegance in fashion, and they appreciate quality and authenticity in restaurants.

Considering the season, flights options, and the activities our clients would have access to, we suggested to spend this week-end on the Lake Como in north of Italy. The new Mandarin Oriental had opened few months before, and both settings and amenities are outstandingly elegant.

The Mandarin Oriental boasts a fabulous spa where we booked a couple massage to start the week-end relaxed. We prepared a light walking itinerary in Como, to visit the old village and maybe shop at the Max Mara store. We also set a private cross-over of the lake so they can flavour the masterpieces of Materia for lunch. Plenty of time to relax by the floating pool of the MO, also to drive a private boat on the lake and picnic overwater with a glass of Champagne to savour while soaking in the gorgeous views of the historic villas that line up the lake.

The price of this trip for our clients included the flights from London with British Airways in Business Class to Milan, 3 nights stays in Vista Lagoon Room at Mandarin Oriental Lago di Como, a private chauffeur to and from Como, a lunch in restaurant Materia, Experiment Tasting menu, the transfer from the hotel in riva boat, 4 hours of boat rental to self-drive on the Lake, for £5,200.

RELAX ON THE RIVIERA MAYA

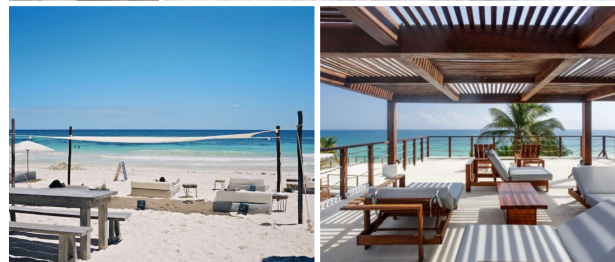

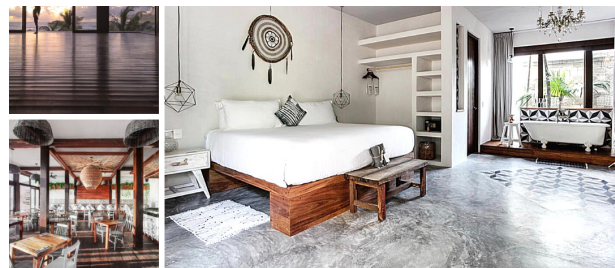

ESCAPE TO THE SUN IN THE TRENDY BUT LAID-BACK MEXICAN VILLAGE OF TULUM, ON THE CARIBBEAN SEA,

REQUEST : A WEEK IN FEBRUARY TO FUEL UP ON SUN, DO SOME LIGHT SPORTS, HAVE GREAT FOOD & COCKTAILS CHOICES, SOMEWHERE EASY, STRESS-FREE

Our clients are a young couple who have launched a new food concept. They are laid-back, fun, but like to splurge on the pleasure of life. Work Hard, Play Hard ! We initially discussed around a ski trip, but they confessed they needed sun. So we switched our focus and offered them more tropical options ! She likes yoga, he still wanted to have some physical activities, and were very in sync on cocktail hour. They loved the idea of Tulum, on the Riviera Maya in Mexico that we suggested.

We curated 3 eco-chic options on the beachfront, and our clients also had a crush on our favourite, Sanara. We love it for its full of flavour healthy restaurant The Real Coconut, its fabulous yoga studio overlooking the sea, its fresh palette in the room decoration, and its great location. A perfect day there consists in a morning stroll on the flat golden sand beach, or a yoga class, huevos rancheros or a vegan breakfast, the rest of the day at the beach, maybe drinking coconut water. After siesta, a class of kite surf, a stand up paddle session in a lagoon, or a massage. Then the evening starts with a margarita, some ceviche or modern tacos. The food scene is just fabulous. For more adventure, we suggested a training in free-diving, the exploration of a water cave and a day sightseeing the mayan ruins of Tulum and of Chichen Itza.

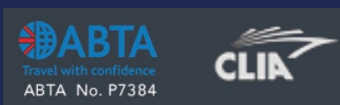

The price of this trip for our clients in February included the flights from London with British Airways in Business Class to Cancun, 7 nights stays in deluxe room with a balcony on the beach, a private chauffeured transfer, 5 yoga classes, a couple massage and 2 private kite surf lesson, for £10,500.
